WILLIAMSBURG in VIRGINIA, Sept. 19.

ON monday laſt arrived here, from Winchester, Capt. Waddil, of the North-Carolina regiment, who brought with him, under an eſcort, Monſr La Force, who is now confined in the public goal in this city.

Williamſburg, Oct. 3. By lieut. Lyon, who arrived here laſt tueſday from Fort du Queſne, upon the Ohio (whither he was ſent by colo Innes with a flag of truce, and which he left the 20th of laſt month) we are adviſed, that at that time, the whole force of the French at that fort, did not exceed 100 men, and thoſe very indifferently ſupplied with proviſions, &c. His chief buſineſs there was, to propoſe to the French commander, an exchange of monſ. Druillon, and the two cadets, for meſſrs. Stobo and Van Braam, which would not be accepted of, on which account Mr. Stobo was ordered away for Montreal, the day lieutenant Lyon left the fort.

Williamſburg, Oct. 10. Laſt monday arrived in Hampton road, the Garland man of war, Capt. Arbuthnot, with 10 000 pounds ſterling, in ſpecie, which his majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſend us for the defence of our frontiers: The king has alſo been pleaſed to order from his royal ſtores, 2000 ſtand of arms, &c for the uſe of this province, which are daily expected. In this ſhip, is come paſſenger, the honourable Arthur Dobbs, Eſq; to take poſſeſſion of his government of North-Carolina.

New York, Oct. 14. Saturday laſt his majeſty's ſhip Shoreham, the hon. Julian Legge, Eſq; commander, ſailed from Sandy hook, bound for Virginia, with £. 5000 in caſh on board, in order to aid the Virginians, in repelling the French and their Indians from the frontiers of that province.

Boſton, Oct. 14. Yeſterday Capt. Whiting, in a ſhip from South Carolina, bound to Oporto, having ſprung his fore-maſt, put in here to refit.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17. We have advice that the Twightwees lately ſent ſome of their headmen to the lower Shawana town, on the river Ohio, with the following meſſage, viz.

"Brethren the Shawaneſe,

YOU know the French have invaded our country on all ſides; — Why do you ſit ſtill? — Will you be ſlaves to the French, and ſuffer them to be maſters of all the land, and all the game?—Riſe up, take the hatchet, and follow our example. We killed, not long ago, 50 Frenchmen, all warriors in one day.—Five other nations have joined us; and if you, and your grandfathers the Delawares, will but ſtir, the French will ſoon be forced to fly."

To which the Shawaneſe anſwered,

Brethren, the Twightwees

WE are ſurpriſed at your requeſt. The ſix united nations have deſired us to ſit ſtill, and not mind the French; and that we muſt keep our ears and eyes towards the ſix united nations; and ſo do our grandfathers the Delawares. We deſire you would ſpare us, and leave our town before the French hear of you, and come and kill you here, and plunge us into the war, before the ſix united nations begin it."

Upon which, it is ſaid, the Twightwees accordingly left the Shawana town, much diſguſted.

We have intelligence from the back parts, that a party of French Indians have been lately down at Will's creek, and in the night time fired at one of the centries placed round the Engliſh camp at that place.

We hear that Tanachriſſon, otherwiſe called the Half-King, one of the principal chiefs of the Indian nations ſettled on the Ohio, died at Harris's ferry, on Suſquehana, the 4th inſtant.

Williamſburg, Oct. 25. Laſt ſaturday evening arrived here his excellency Horatio Sharpe, Eſq; governor of Maryland; who, we hear, has a commiſſion from his majeſty as commander in chief of the forces that are, or may be raiſed to defend the frontiers of this, and the neighbouring colonies, and to repel the unjuſtifiable invaſion and incroachments of the French, on the Ohio; and that his excellency intends to ſet out very ſhortly, to take this command on him.

Yeſterday his excellency Arthur Dobbs, Eſq; ſet out from this city for his government of N. Carolina.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24. On ſunday laſt the ſchooner Argo, capt. Swaine, arrived here, from a ſecond attempt to diſcover a North-Weſt paſſage, but without ſucceſs.

New-York, Nov. 4. The advices received from the Havannah ſince our laſt, are, That the Bay of Honduras is taken at the ſole expence of his Catholic majeſty, and not by a company of merchants, as was imagined; but that as ſoon as it is properly fortified, it is to be given to a particular company in Spain, who are to ſettle and improve the works already begun there, and impede all Engliſhmen from ever getting footing in that part of the world for the future.

Boſton, Nov. 11. About a week ago we had advice by an expreſs from Fort Halifax, that a few days before, a 6 men belonging to that fort were out upon buſineſs at ſome diſtance from it, they were fired upon by 8 Indians, who killed one, took 4 priſoners, and wounded the other, who, notwithſtanding ſome of them purſued him and threw their hatchets after him, made his eſcape to the fort.

Friday laſt the rev. Mr. Whitefield ſet out from this place in order to return to Georgia.

New York, Nov. 11. We hear that one of his majeſty's ſhips of war is arrived at New London, from England, to make a demand on that province for a little Spaniſh ſhip, and a few cheſts of dollars, her cargo, which was brought in there in diſtreſs, about two years ſince.

Philadelphia, Nov. 14. Sunday laſt being the King's birth day, when His Majeſty entered into the 72d year of his age, the ſame was obſerved here the next day with the greateſt ſolemnity. At noon his honour the governor gave an entertainment on the occaſion at his houſe in this city: And in the evening there was a grand ball at the ſtate houſe, at which were preſent about 100 ladies, and a much greater number of gentlemen, who made as brilliant an aſſembly as has ever been ſeen in this province. All the company were elegantly entertained there at ſupper in the long gallery; after which the loyal healths were drank; likewiſe thoſe of the proprietaries of Pennſylvania, and proſperity to the province, &c. and every thing was conducted with the greateſt decorum, and to general ſatisfaction.

On ſaturday laſt ſeveral habits wore by the Eſkemaux Indians, who inhabit the ſouthern parts of Labradore, with their uteſils, and other curioſities belonging to that people, were delivered by capt. Swaine into our library, being a preſent from the north-weſt company to the library company of this city.

New York, Nov. 18. Capt. Arnold from Jamaica informs us, that governor Knowles had given orders to the captain of one of his majeſty's ſhips of war then at that iſland, to take Mr. Jones, an engineer, on board, and proceed to the Muſquito-ſhore, where he was to be joined by another ſhip of war; there to take on board as many of the Baymen and others as were willing to go with them, in order to diſlodge the Spaniards who are now ſettled in the Bay, to depart quietly from thence, otherwiſe they muſt repel force by force. It is added, by Capt. Arnold, that if the Engliſh ſucceed in this enterpriſe, and are ſo fortunate as to repoſſeſs themſelves of the Bay, they have orders to erect ſeveral ſtrong fortifications there.

CHARLES-TOWN, Dec. 12.

On ſaturday laſt arrived here His Majeſty's Ship Shoreham, commanded by Julian Legge, Eſq; from Virginia. Off Winyaw, he ſpoke with Capt. Spencer, bound in there from London.

The ſame Day arrived here Capt. Boyd, from Jamaica, who informs us, that Governor Knowles had lately ſent a Schooner with Cannon, &c. to the Muſquito-Shore. And, that two Men of War were ſail'd for the Bay of Honduras.
